Today's Speakers

Our RCTC Delegation Reports on Lisbon

What happens in Lisbon stays in Lisbon – or does it? Today we welcome our own globetrotting Rotarians who will give us the lowdown on what really happened at the Rotary International convention in June.

President Tim Long and a parade of past presidents – Mary Edwards, Ingrid Parris-Hicklin, Ronnie Chantker, Suzanne McDougall, and Burt Heacock (plus Tyra Garlington) – made the pilgrimage to Portugal to participate in the convention proceedings.

Today several will share tales of what they experienced in Lisbon and beyond, including how to cope when a general strike disrupts the flight home.

But they'll all agree on one thing – that a Rotary International convention is an event not to be missed!

A Once and a (Possibly) Future Governor:

Pool Party Planned

Once again, Brian Mansir and Catherine Ahearn will open their beautiful home and grounds to Tysons Corner Rotarians and guests for a summer picnic and pool party. Club Administration Chair Huong Van is helping coordinate the fun.

The festive event will take place on Saturday, Aug. 10, beginning at 1 p.m., with food served about 2 p.m. Catherine and Brian need volunteers to bring desserts, chips, buns, condiments, and micro brews. They're also looking for games. Everyone should bring folding chairs. Children are welcome.

And don't forget to bring your bathing costume!

LUNCH DATE

Have you taken a fellow Club member to lunch yet? See Glenn Rounsevell if you forgot whose card you drew. It's a great way to know each other better!

Notes From the Tower

Next week's breakfast featuring Democratic candidate for governor Terry McAuliffe will take place in the Fairfax Room. Bring your friends and neighbors to meet the candidate – guests are encouraged!

OUCH! Katherine Barnett appeared at the Ken Cuccinelli breakfast she arranged on July 11 sporting a formidable neck brace after she met a cottonwood tree at the end of a fishing float in Montana.

The fishing mishap landed her in the hospital with a concussion, three broken neck bones, a separated shoulder, and a seven-inch scalp flap. What a trouper!

Thursday Thought:

"The closest to perfection a person ever comes is when he or she fills out a job application form."

— Stanley J. Randall

Cuccinelli Speaks Out

Attorney General Ken Cuccinelli talked about his quest to become the next governor of Virginia on July 11. Among the accomplishments he noted were his efforts to halt human trafficking, which included the creation of four task forces in Virginia, and his strides in fighting health care fraud.

The Republican candidate said that, if elected, he would work to improve safety on university campuses and to aid victims of mental illness.
