

OTARY CLUB of Rotary

ALO ALTO, CALIF. Pinion

MEETING OF: APRIL 26, 2004

Word Processor: Le Levy

Graphics: Lyle Connell

REBUILDING SUPREME

We were working on the ladders,
All last Saturday,
We were working up on ladders,
Painting through the day.

Can't you see McCowan and Larson
Ruth, Walt, Wayne and Rick,
Gustavo, Julie and Art Stauffer,
Waving his big stick.

Look at how we paint,
Look at how we paint,
Look at how we paint.
Each wall and door,

Look at how we paint,
(We'll paint until we faint),
Here's a toast to Kelly-Moore.

Someone's in the kitchen with Lynda,
Someone's in the kitchen, I know-oh-oh-oh,
Someone's in the kitchen with Lynda,
Painting with the old gusto.

And singing,
Up, down, way to go,
Swing those brushes to and fro-oh,
Up, down, that's the show,
Painting with the old gusto!

OPENERS

Monday's meeting got off to a superb start with JOHN BRACKEN and SKIP HOYT rendering "I've Been Working On The Railroad" in honor of the Hands-On, Sleeves-Up crew who did a wondrous make-over of CAR's office complex. The details of that event were then projected via one of PRESIDENT BILL's inimitable PPP's (PowerPoint Presentations)

FUTURE PROGRAMS

May 3rd: Attorney JAY BOYARSKY will speak on the World Poker Tournament

May 10th: Dr. HARRY GREENBERG, the senior-Associate dean for medical research at Stanford will speak on Transit Immunology.

May 17th: CAROL LARSON will tell us about THE DAVID AND LUCILLE PACKARD FOUNDATION in it's 40th Year

OPENING REMARKS

YUJEAN YAN's vision presented the philosophy he developed when, as a youngster, he was concerned that we are all mortal and ultimately return to dust. It's important, therefore, to be as good a person as possible while we're here and to live life in balance; the golden mean.

GUESTS

STEVE SCHAPER (one of four members wearing a necktie on this hot April day) introduced visiting Rotarians Hardy Jones from Los Altos, Candace Roney, from San Jose, and Dean Holman from Mountain View. Also introduced were Gail Cavello, DICK FREEMAN's guest (Property Management), and TV personality Henrietta Burroughs (ANNETTE GLANCKOPF's).

ANNOUNCEMENTS

DAVID NEGRIN (one of only six members named "David") announced that the next vocational visit will be May 11th at the Palo Alto Weekly. Weekly Publisher BILL JOHNSON (one of far too many members named "Bill") warmly welcomed all who were interested in seeing how a top-flight newspaper functions.

BLUE BADGERS

MARK HEYER

GEORGE FITZGERALD

CSMA

MIKE COUCH introduced our speaker, Angela McConnell, Director of the Community School of Music & Arts. This marvelous school is just now moving into an award winning new facility occupying twenty-five thousand square feet on 1.6 acres donated by the City of Mountain View. In this time of educational cutbacks, CSMA provides badly-needed instruction in music and the arts to ten thousand students from 17 school districts. Its motto is "Arts for All" and it carries through by providing instruction all the way from 18- month old infants to seventy-eight year old clarinetists.

Post Thought: It is disappointing to read that Hyatt has decided not to replace Rickey's with a new hotel. They have been an excellent host of our meetings for many years and have helped us serve the community. A recent example was their providing box lunches for all the Hands-On, Sleeves-Up workers at CAR. We'll miss being here. Those of you with influence should use it to see if Hyatt (and the city) can be convinced to reconsider.
