Visiting Rotarian, Paul Slosberg, South Central Citrus County of Florida

REMARKS PROFUNDO

LARRY BAILEY introduced, what to him was profound and motivational, a quote by a 19th century French Jesuit Priest. It was a time when the issue of creation vs. evolution was creating considerable and heated discussion. The quote speaks to his soul in the same way as the Rotary four way test: "The day will come after we harness the winds, the tides and gravitation, we will harness the energy of God's will. On that date for the 2nd time in the history of the world, we shall be governed by it".

WHAT'S GOING ON!

The question is "WHO" has our club projector? We would really like to know who has it. If you have it, please contact rlancefield@comcast.net.

“COUNTY JEOPARDY”

Running buddies, BETSY BECHTEL and JUDY KLEINBERG, introduced the fabulous production of “County Jeopardy” presented by

Ms. KNISS.

It was a fun and interesting contest between tables. It was a clever way to learn about the “Liz Domain”. DARYL SAVAGE was a behind-the-scenes writer.

All kinds of statistics came up under five categories:
County News
County Government
Palo Alto Rotary
All Politics are Local
Sports

THE TODD LEWIS table was the clear winner of the contest

The secret of a good sermon is to have a good beginning and a good ending; and to have the two as close together as possible. — George Burns
