Origins of Rotary

In 1905, a Chicago based attorney by the name of Paul P. Harris called a small group of his friends together to discuss an idea. He wanted to start a club that would promote fellowship and communication amongst the business community. Establishing a friendly spirit among business people and giving them the opportunity to compare experiences and ideas was foremost in his vision.

As the group continued to meet, ever expanding their numbers, they rotated their meetings among the members' places of business. This was the catalyst for naming their young group, the Rotary Club of Chicago. Soon after the "Rotary Wheel" was adopted as their official emblem. The club grew to 30 members by the end of that first year and the message of "Rotary" began to spread.

From 1908 to 1921 the Rotary organization spread across the United States and into Canada. In 1922 with clubs on every continent, the Rotary International name was formally adopted. Today, there are over 1.2 million Rotarians in 33,000 local clubs, in more than 200 countries and geographical areas throughout the world. The Warminster Rotary Club is one of these very integral local service hubs.

As an organization of business and professional leaders united worldwide, Rotary provides humanitarian services, encourages high ethical standards in all vocations, and helps build goodwill and peace in the world.

Rotary's objective is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise. With a firm commitment to success of this objective, Rotary stresses the development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service, promotes high ethical standards in business and professions, and the recognition of the worthiness of all occupations. By incorporating these principles into their every day personal, business and community life, every Rotarian can advance international understanding and peace, through this worldwide fellowship of business and professional men and women..."United, in the ideal of service."

Rotarians have a proud history and tradition of "Service Above Self".

Recognizing our "Partners in Blue"

The Warminster Rotary is proud to celebrate Officer Bunda and award him their "Service Above Self" Award.

Ryan Bunda's Story of Heroism

On Tuesday, July 10, 2019, at approximately 09:33 hours, Officer Ryan Bunda was on patrol. While in the area of County Line Road and Newtown Road, the officer observed a white Ford F-250, traveling west on County Line Rd. The officer observed the passenger of the vehicle waving his arms trying to get the officer's attention, while the operator of the truck appeared to be in convulsions. Officer Bunda attempted to stop the truck as it traveled at a slow speed and in traffic. Officer Bunda exited his vehicle and ran towards the truck as it traveled at a slow speed. Upon reaching the truck Officer Bunda could see the operator in active seizure. Officer Bunda, opened the driver side door, while the truck headed towards eastbound traffic. Officer Bunda managed to apply the brakes with his left hand bringing the Ford to a complete stop, with the assistance of a passing Huntington Valley Firefighter. Once the truck was stopped Officer Bunda and the firefighter carried the operator to a safe area, where they called for medical assistance and rendered aid. Officer Bunda's rapid and decisive actions, were both heroic and lifesaving. Great job Officer Bunda and thank you for your service.
