

Rotary Club of Centennial Colorado

Centennial, Colorado

January 16, 2018

The meeting was a club assembly where members met with their committee.

No summaries of the committee meetings were presented so this newsletter is going to be short.

Note one thing with this and future newsletter. There will now be a link to where members can view the video of any of our meetings and get credit for attending a meeting.

BLUE MARBLE:

Charlie Jackson was unable to find the elusive blue marble. The pot rolls over to next week.

CLUB BUSINESS

- Opioid Event—January 27 from 8:30 to 10. Volunteers are still needed.
- PrimeTimers—If anyone wants to sponsor a luncheon for the PrimeTimers, it would be greatly accepted. The estimated cost is $100.
- RI Grants Seminar is Jan 20 at Red Rocks Community College from 12:30 to 4 PM
- Nibbles and Sips. This is a fund raiser for the Integrated Family Services. It will be Feb 24. More information will be coming.

BUSINESS MINUTE

Mark Paller presented the Business Minute on Paller Financial. Mark was complimentary of the knowledge that the members of this club bring to the organization. Paller Financial is a CPA and financial planning firm dedicated to the client's success. His firm wants to know their client needs and goals.
