The Brad B Jammin Story: This business began when Brad harvested his concord grapes for the season and he wondered what he could do with the grapes. Why not make some jam? After Brad and his wife Kristen visited a farmers market in Slovenia, California and purchased Raspberry Jalapeño jam, they went on a search to find more, but couldn't find any. The following year Brad added jalapeños to his grape harvest! Then on a trip to Saint Thomas, when they couldn't find any pepper jams, they purchased the raw materials and made an amazing jam that they put on everything they ate that week. The concept continued from there and Brad and Kristen love making jams that are unique.
