Well, guys, I believe that this is my last Rotary blurb as president of the club. I write this with mixed emotions... It has been a great year. I have truly been honored to work with each of you over the year. One of the many lovely things about this club is that everyone chips in, everyone accepts responsibility for their part and does it largely without exception, which is amazing. With all the busy schedules and all the potential distractions, all of you find a way unfailingly to be a contributing part of the whole to make the club run very smoothly. And incidentally, to make my life as pres really, really easy. Thank you all for being such great members of this vibrant club, which gets so many things done on so many levels. You all are great. I want to give a special shout out to so many of you guys, but at the end of the day, I would just be listing the membership roster and who wants to read that whole list.

However, when you get a chance, I might suggest that those of you who have interacted with Candice, send her an email of appreciation. She really has stepped up to keep the gears running for my Rotary duties this year. She really has been awesome. And if you want to lobby her to join the club, that would be great, too!

A few quick notes on the way out. First, it looks like we were (or more likely, I was) introducing some 'channel conflict' in trying to have a big band shindig fundraiser this fall along with the citrus sales fundraiser. So, we have decided to keep the citrus sales for the holidays in the fall and hold the Big Band Shindig in the Spring. We are locking down dates, but it looks like mid-April for that event. That gives us plenty of time to lock in sponsors, sell tickets and make it a fantastic event for us, for new potential members, the community at large and, importantly, the DMHR Foundation! More to come on this topic. Second, thanks to all who joined in on the last push to hit our goal for fundraising in the last week. We are not there yet, but we are getting closer. Anyone who wants to kick in this week, you are welcome to do so... And lastly, our fearless future leader, Scott Smeester will be taking the helm this week. I am out of town for the week and will miss tomorrow's meeting. I hope you all have a grand and relaxing time next week. Remember, we will be dark next week, the week of the 4th. Enjoy!
