

President's Column:

July 10th, 2018

Hi Denver Mile High Rotarians.

Greetings from Italy. I didn't plan to miss my first two weeks as DMHR President—it just worked out that way. Paul and I have 10% ownership of a 16 th century house in a little Italian town called Petritoli, and our times during the year are determined by lottery.

The common thread is just that: the thread that holds us together. So many of you are involved in planning and organizing these events, and having fun doing it. You make this Club really special. I'm just along for the ride.

Carolyn

The house is in the Marche region, undiscovered and beautiful; a place to enjoy exploring, cooking, eating and drinking, and seeing the most incredible fields full of sunflowers. And this weekend there is a harvest festival with parades and dancing in the street. We even have time for an occasional game of Scrabble.

This is also a place to plan for this Rotary year. There are lots of things that will happen this year: the Big Band fundraiser in the spring, our 30 th anniversary celebration, fellowship events every month. And lots of opportunities to get involved in community service, whether in Denver or somewhere on the other side of the world. You know why all these activities are on the agenda for this year. It's certainly not because of the president. No.
