Hello, everyone! Welcome back from what I hope was a wonderful fourth of July holiday for all of you! The fireworks are done, the clubs are put away, the last fish-fry is cleaned up and now it is back to it!

I am looking forward to this year of service and all the great things that the club will continue to do. We have some great upcoming programs. Kevin Galloway and the whole programs team have put together a great line-up well into the Fall.

This week should be an interesting one: Lindsay Schwartz, a producer for CBS' 48 Hours. 48 Hours is an American documentary news magazine that has been broadcast on CBS since 1988 presenting real life mysteries and crime stories. Some of their interviews have been used in court to convict the (then alleged) criminals. Previous anchors to the show have been Dan Rather and Leslie Stahl. Lindsay will discuss the show, the producer's role, and answer your questions. I can imagine that Lindsay will have some great stories to tell us!

Don't forget that we have the Past Presidents' party on the 15th (next Saturday) at Tom Gregory's house. Thank you, Tom for volunteering to host the party. The club is covering beverages (soda, beer wine) and I am pretty sure we are providing a honey baked ham. The rest is potluck from club members. Looking forward to seeing you all there. It should be a great time!

We have a new member joining us. Many of you have had the opportunity to meet Anson Thompson, who has been at our Wednesday meetings several times over the last month. Anson splits time between Indiana and Colorado, as he has insurance agency operations in both locales. Anson is energetic and ready to hop in, so we look forward to inducting him in July.

Looking forward to the week and seeing you all!

-Adams
