Hi Denver Mile High,

This is my first official week as Club President and I am honored that you chose me for this role.

First of all, I want to thank Adams for his outstanding year, which extended an extra two weeks, because of my travels. I spent last week in Catania, Sicily. What a wonderful place, with Roman and Greek ruins in the center of the city and a great view of Mount Etna smoking in the background. Also, take a look at one of the photos attached. Even in Sicily Rotary does great work—this was a sign for emergency room services at a hospital.

There is a lot going on this week. Both the Club Foundation Board and the Club Board meet and make plans for the year. And a Happy Hour this Thursday. This is a great time to think about joining a Committee if you are yet a member of one. Or just volunteer when you can—there are lots of opportunities.

The Rotary Theme this year is

“Be the Inspiration.” I think that the strength of this Club is that we inspire each other, and that makes us look for new ways to take action. And we have fun doing it.

Have a great week and I'll see you all Wednesday. Carolyn
