Hi Everyone,

Loy Dickinson, the Founder of Denver Mile High Rotary, passed away last week. He both chartered and guided our Club for many years. Although he had not been active for several years due to his health, his legacy is all around us.

He was our Charter President in 1989-90, 29 years ago. The Club had about 40% women members—one of the highest percentages in the country at that time. Loy believed that women were essential to Rotary, because, as he said: “women get things done.” He was “Mr. Rotary,” proudly celebrating all things Rotary throughout the world.

Loy helped us understand the importance of giving of both our time and our money. In his honor, members who donate $1,000 to the Rotary Club of Denver Mile High are named “Loy Dickinson Fellows.”

There will be a memorial service Wednesday, August 1, 10:00 am at Greenwood Community Church, 5600 E. Belview Ave, Greenwood Village, CO 80011. Please join us to honor Loy’s service to the world and especially to our Club
