President's Column:

July 21, 2015

Hard to believe but August is now right around the corner. Hopefully you are all enjoying a great summer.

A wonderful time for getting out and making the most of everything Colorado has to offer! I know many are getting in summer vacations and traveling to all points of the compass. We are always a little slow at this point in the year and we certainly understand if we don't see everyone.

Enjoy your time away.

For those who are around, we have a full slate of activity. This week Tom Cella will take us on a tour of the newly refurbished State Capitol. Plan to enjoy our regular breakfast at the U-Club and then we will walk the two blocks to the Capitol.

Last - At the risk of sounding like a broken record, tickets are still available for the Rockies game on August 21st. We have a good group going and would enjoy having you join us. Friends and family are welcome. See me for tickets.

See you on

Wednesday,

Bob Kemp

President 2015-2016

Please wear good walking shoes. We will be climbing on some scaffolding.

ADVENTURE FOR GOOD

COLORADO, IT'S TIME TO SHOW THE WORLD WHAT WE'RE MADE OF.

Early in the morning on August 8, 2015, while the world is sleeping, we'll be lacing up our hiking boots. We'll strap up, gear up, and hit the trails. Together we will be ascending peaks across the state, attempting to summit all 54 of Colorado's Fourteeners in one day - with the goal of raising money to help end water poverty for fifteen communities in Nicaragua.

If you're an adventure-loving human who craves the crisp alpine air in your lungs, thrives in active community, and strives to have a positive impact in the world, we want you. Join us at co54.org.
