Old Business:

Report on Recent Events:

- Air Fair netted $1951
  - Recommendation to sell individual beers rather than $20 wrist band. It was also discussed that ticket booth so far from actual beer caused some problems and may have been a deterrent.
- Peach sales were low this year, likely due to lost missing cases. Jolene will contact Augusta (Flatirons Club President) regarding possible surplus for their club

Member Name badges - Member name badges were distributed at meeting tonight. You can take with you to wear when you represent Rotary, or you may leave it with the club.

New Business:

Garden Tour needs a team of volunteers. Please let Maria know if you would like to participate in the planning. She will create a Slack channel for this subcommittee to collaborate and plan.

Rose Parade for District – sign up on the District website if interested in decorating the RI Float.

Speaker for next meeting - Stephanie Smith Raby - Stop The Bleed will be presenting. You will learn valuable methods on how to Stop life threatening bleeding that can occur during an accident. It's always best to be prepared as you never know when such a skill will be needed.

Member Spotlights: Mike Bergmann and Gerri Kier
