Members' Music

Posted by Michael BROMBY on Jul 08, 2012

"Music gives a soul to the universe, wings to the mind, flight to the imagination, a everything." ~ Plato ~

Rotary Club of Central Melbourne - Sunrise

Members' Music

(the sergeant's compilation)

The Rules

1. Nominate your favourite song or piece of music (including sing - please choose something less than 6 minutes long
2. First in, best dressed - first to nominate has priority over another choosing the same piece (second in time will be invited to select another piece)
3. Only one version of a song or musical piece will be accepted
4. Fee per selection - $5.00 (only one selection per member). To the sergeant's fund in lieu of fine collections
5. Sorry - only open to members of RCCMS - no partners or friends nominate
6. Deadline - all selections must be given or emailed to Michael B Bromby by July 2012

Remember - this is your personal choice - your favourite piece of music (classical, blues, hymn, spiritual, country, folk, etc) ~ you just have to name it (and the artist)

If you need any inspiration - discover the joys of YouTube - just enter your song and allow yourself to be swept away.

ROMAC Assistant Operations Director

Posted by Roy GARRETT on Jul 06, 2012

Voluntary role, with expenses reimbursed, suiting someone with sound administrative communication skills. The appointee will work from home, and attend four meetings of the ROMAC Board and a meeting of the ROMAC Medical Panel annually.

The primary role of the Assistant Operations Director is to understudy and assist the Director with the administrative and logistic process associated with referral and ROMAC patient, followed by immigration and transport arrangements, to ensure the completion of their guardian travel to Australia or New Zealand for their treatment, and return home after completion. The incumbent, as they gain experience, would gradually assume responsibility for the management of specific cases and provide relief for the Operations Director in his absence.

It is envisaged after a period of suitable training and experience, the incumbent will assume the position of Operations Director for a further period of three years.

Position descriptions for both the Operations Director and Assistant Operations Director can be obtained from Operations Director Richard Woodburn, burdekn@bigpond.net.au Chair International Service Julie Mason, Mason.Julie.M@edumail.vic.gov.au.

Changeover: The Inside Story

Posted on Jul 06, 2012

By Roving Reporter

Once again Marjorie was the power behind the scenes organising the annual changeover celebration.

Your roving reporter does not know how many changeovers Marjorie has organised but it is a truckload. And the experience showed. One couple arrived around 7pm on the evening and they had not registered! Now that would have thrown a few people what the chief might have thrown but not our Marjorie - a little shuffle here and a little shuffle there and all were accommodated. It's my guess that very few people twigged to how the changeover was tested - it was seamless.

While mentioning the 'o' word, District Governor [2012-13] Denis Shore was the first to mention it in our evening and Central Melbourne-Sunrise was the first changeover in his diary from a usually reliable source, I'm told the said Marjorie acting with her District Board organised the DG's diary for him! Central Melbourne-Sunrise strikes again - DG attending 14 changeovers spread over two weeks.

Induction

Greg Cuthbert, accompanied by Partner Chantelle was welcomed to the club and inducted as a member with Roger Thornton as his mentor. Greg was presented with a Member Badge and indicated how much he looked forward to being active in the club as he had found it very welcoming.

Sergeant's Session

Sergeant Michael, dispensing with the badge of office, also announced no fines for late arrivals although this could turn out like 'when is a tax not a tax' especially as he has a birthday. After announcing Roy Garrett has become a Grandfather for the 9th time, Michael asked a few members on what was the greatest comic movie and greatest western, strange answers were compared against previously unopened envelopes, the answers were 'Some Like it Hot' & 'Shane'. Michael then explained his intent to involve members in their favourite bit of music. See article below for more details.

Guest Speaker

Members were then enthralled by tales from Roland Rocchiccioli of his life's experience in the entertainment industry in Australia and overseas. A veteran of screen and radio, his early days at the ABC where announcers were expected to have a working knowledge of many languages to enable them to correctly pronounce names of composers. In those days, as was modelled on the BBC and mispronunciation by announcers resulted in them being given a written explanation to management. ABC announcers were to broadcast news as reporters of the news not commentators.

The Village Glee Club had influenced his earlier life and made him anxious to start singing. He did at four and a half, firstly at a Convent School but when his Mother decided he was learning enough he was shunted to a State School where he became obsessed with singing and studying music. His autobiography Be Home before Dark has become a classic, read in Australia six times and also published in the USA, it tells Roland's story up to age 18 when he moved to Gwalia in Western Australia.

Musicals which came down under during the 1950's and 1960's usually relied on overseas talent and there was a sharp distinction between repertory companies : theatre but now this distinction has become blurred. It was during this time that and actresses such as Jill Perryman, Nancy Hayes, June Bronhill, John MacCall and Googie Withers began to flourish.

Harry M Miller played a significant role in Roland's theatrical career getting him n Australian productions of Hair, Jesus Christ Superstar and the Rocky Horror Shc. Frank Thring had been an extraordinary experience. Frank had a great sense of touring with The Importance of Being Earnest, Frank learning they were going to at the Zero Motel had exclaimed and its "probably on bugger all street". On anot looking at a piece of costume jewellery Frank was told that if it was real it should collection to which Frank had replied, "isn't it?"

Another enjoyable but different experience had been Roland's period on the Foo. Robert Helpman had also been a great character to work with and provided men Roland when asked about the comparison of a developed voice, such as during classic development was emphatic that although rapid developed voices from qu fine voices they didn't compare to voices developed classically over a longer per training. Like a true stage veteran, Roland remains active, next year he will be in production of his play The Greatest is Love which tells a poignant love story thro of letters exchanged between a couple over a period of time.

Michael Bromby before thanking the speaker invited three Club Members to narr piece of music, this ranged from Spanish Folk to the Classic but also provided 2 the Beach Boys.

Michael then thanked the speaker and presented him with a Timor-Leste cottage produced embroidered box with soap.

President Kay, acknowledged visiting Rotarians and Guests and closed the mee 2012-13 Rotary International Theme Peace Through Service.
