This Weeks Speaker

Posted by Bruce McBAIN

Central Melbourne Sunrise Rotarian Michael Wells, will speak in his capacity as State Manager, SHINE for Kids on the theme. The hidden victims of crime

SHINE for Kids provides programs for affected children – many are children of prisoners. It's not the fault of the children, however they suffer. SHINE for Kids is the only organisation in Australia that is solely focused on this marginalised client group. The organisation has a child-centric and strength based focus to provide support to help stem some of the negative effects of parental imprisonment. The intent of SHINE for Kids is to build resilience, create brighter futures and provide needed services to affected children.

Michael has an interesting background which includes 22 years employed with Victoria Police as a police officer, detective, police negotiator, internal investigator, volunteer coach and mentor with marginalised youth. With qualifications in Criminology, Adolescent Health and Welfare, Applied Human Rights and years of practical experience, Michael provides many insights to highlight the benefits of an organisation like SHINE for Kids.

Report of Last Meeting

Posted by Tony THOMAS

Meeting of February 5, 2013

Chair: Roger Thornton

Guests: Anthony Nelson (ANZ Bank), Jodie Willmer (CEO Travellers Aid Aust), Rhodie Anderson (Rigby Cooke Lawyers).

Announcements: Tom Callander said our lunch in the park barbecue on Sunday 24 Feb will showcase the Community Village van and equipment, as well as enabling members to have fun together. The red tape involved in council permissions is arduous. The venue is Central Park, Malvern East. (See separate story in this bulletin).

Alan Seale said members are building four outdoor chairs for McAuley House for distressed women, with volunteers making the bits ready for assembly in his garage, coupled with red wine. More helpers needed.

Roger Thornton says Pip and he went to Opera in the Park at Stonnington and heard Michael Lapina sing beautifully as Alfredo in Traviata. Michael's family turned out in force.

New Generations Report – Mik Wells

Last month we sponsored Tony Luo from University High School to do the Science Experience. This was three days of practical science training held locally at Melbourne University. Tony is a year 11 student at University High School and he is hoping to make a career one day in the field of science.

Rotary Youth Program of Enrichment (RYPEN)

- Friday 22nd March – Sunday 24th March 2013
- Location: Camp Getaway – Lancefield (approx 67 km north of Melbourne)
- Our responsibility for the weekend is to supply and cook all the meals for the students and the leaders for the weekend.
- We will also chair and coordinate the Saturday night Gala Dinner. During the course of the dinner the DG, Host Club President or nominee and a Rotaract Team Leader will speak for approx 3 minutes.
- More volunteers are required and I require confirmation in the coming weeks for Rotarians to volunteer for either the entire weekend or a 23 hour session.
- 1st Session: 4.00pm Friday – 3.00pm Saturday
- 2nd Session: 3.00pm Saturday – 2.00pm Sunday
- Working with Children cards are required for all volunteers.

Risk issues

- Our role is a 'low risk' matter. Our job is to simply cater and put food on the table, therefore basic OHS standards apply. We will be appointing a Safety Officer who will be fully aware of all potential hazards and risk issues.
- The campsite operators at Camp Weekaway have a 'risk management plan' that applies to everyone in case of an emergency
- The District 9800 RYPEN committee and the trained camp leaders are responsible for the conduct of camp activities and engaging the participants who are aged between 15 and 17yrs

Guest Speaker: Jo Powell, Government and Stakeholder Relations Manager for Melbourne Airport.

Jo said that Melbourne Airport is preparing a master plan for the next 20 years that will be submitted to the Commonwealth government this year.

Melbourne Airport operates 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. This curfew –free status plays a critical role the community. Less than 10% of all flights operate between the hours 11pm and 6am. These flights provide essential overnight freight services to the nation and 'same day' and 'next day' international services to Asia and Europe.

At Melbourne there are between 600 and 700 aircraft movements every day and over 208,000 aircraft movements a year.

The number of jobs supported by Melbourne Airport has grown by 3.3 per cent a year between 2007 and 2011 to over 14,300 jobs which are directly related to the airport's operation. The airport's employment figure is projected to grow to 23,000 by 2033.

Passengers will grow from 28.8m now to 64m in 2033. Tourism through Melbourne Airport already accounts for half of the total tourism spending in Victoria.

In Hume alone, the airport directly supports more than one in six jobs – making it a major source of local employment. The airport is responsible for 6% of the host economy Gross State Product (GSP).

Melbourne Airport has been operating with three terminals and two runways since it was first opened in 1970. Melbourne Airport has nominated the east-west runway as its preferred orientation for the airport's third runway. This runway will be 3 km in length.

Around 90 per cent of all journeys to Melbourne Airport use private vehicles, taxis or hire cars, while the remaining proportion use public transport services, including buses. The heavy dependence on road access is contributing to congestion and delays.

Ground transport plans:

- Improve capacity but also reducing travel time;
- Provide multiple mode access into the airport (including a rail link)
- Separate passengers and vehicles, and different transport modes, to improve safety and reduce congestion;
- Provide effective access from the major road arterials: Tullamarine Freeway; Western Ring Road (via Airport Drive); and Sunbury Road #

Chairman Roger Thornton thanks Jo for her presentation
