NEXT MEETING - GUEST SPEAKER

Lex de Man AFSM - "Victoria Police Legacy"

Victoria Police Legacy supports members of the police family who have lost partners who are serving, who have resigned after 25 years' service or retired sworn members of Victoria Police, Protective Services Officers or recruits in training. They also support serving or retired sworn members and Protective Services Officers who have lost partners.

Police Legacy undertakes many events throughout the year to recognise the bravery and contributions of the police family.

Lex de Man AFSM, commenced at VPL in June 2016. He has a strong background and experience within the emergency management sector, having come to VPL following 20 years' service in executive roles at the Country Fire Authority. His service at the CFA was preceded by 18 years' policing experience as a sworn member of Victoria Police in both the uniform and as a detective in specialist criminal investigation areas. Most notably, over a period of nearly 5 years, he led the investigation into allegations of the theft of children at birth and the administering of children with the drug LSD by a Melbourne based religious cult which saw him work for a number of months with the Metropolitan Police in the UK and the FBI in the USA.

It's hard to imagine a more disadvantaged group than disabled poverty-stricken women in Nepal. Many Nepalese believe they are 'bad luck' because of evils in a past life.

Stephanie Woollard 31, when a Latrobe student in 2006, found seven disabled and illiterate women in a corrugated iron shed in Kathmandu, struggling to make and sell candles and soaps.

With Rotary support, she made it her mission to help women earn an independent living. Her "Seven Women" not-for-profit group has now helped 5000 Nepali women to make and sell things like felt and silk purses, knits, scarves and hand-puppets.

Steph was an Ivanhoe RC Youth Leadership Awardee. Ivanhoe gave her the first $1000 donation for training materials, as Steph used up her own savings to pay for the trainers. Seven Women is now a tax-deductible RAWCS (Rotary Australia World Community Service) project. Steph was a Rotary Peace Fellow from 2013-15.

MEETING REPORT 6th SEPTEMBER

Posted by Gerard HOGAN

Meeting was chaired by Bruce Heron

Visitors: Therese Robinson, Rob Soros, Nathan Harris and Lewis Batchy

Announcements

- Herb Greenwood requested for volunteers to assist with loading containers or other activities at the Donations in Kind depot on Saturday morning the 24th of September between nine and 12 o'clock. He then went into an in-depth description of what happens at a DIK working bee.
- President Justine made a small presentation on the benefits of Rotary Foundation and the many activities that it supports.

Team Report:

Warwick Cavell gave a presentation regarding the current survey and updating the clubs One Page Action Plan. Hard copies are available for those who can't access a computer or the survey can be filled in online on Survey Monkey. The survey involves looking at change in the club with two simple questions;

- What would you like change?
- What would you like keep?

If you haven't completed the survey you are requested to do so asap please.

Guest Speaker – Jeff Maynard'Sir Hubert Wilkins' and 'The Photographic Record of WW1'

Jeff Maynard, a prolific author, spoke his research into Sir Hubert Wilkins, soldier photographer, Arctic and Antarctica explorer. Jeff's books include The Letterbox War of Kamarooka Street; Niagara's Gold; Divers in Time; and Wings of Ice. His latest book, The Unseen Anzac, tells the story of Sir Hubert Wilkins the official Anzac photographer during World War I.

Jeff discovered Sir Hubert's lost records in America in 2014, and uses them to reveal the story of a man that Australia has largely forgotten.
