Nonh is still making great progress, but while I was there yesterday I commented, via the "translation route", that he looked sad. I also noticed he was sobbing. I established that he is missing his mother. He has never spent any time away from her before. There's not much we can do except give him diversions.

All being well he and Bouncy [Nohn's father] will be moved to the convalescence home a few miles away. We have several patients there and they will be brought back for appointments. Bouncy has his phone and will talk every day to our Lao speaker at the hospital, plus he can use it as a hotline. We will also arrange a tuk tuk outing or two for them both around Phnom Penh once Nonh is ready. An ice cream usually works wonders."

VALE. CHARTER MEMBER, IAN RUST

VALE Ian Arthur Rust - PHF; FAPI Charter Member

Ian being presented with a PHF, 2002.

We mourn the passing of a respected former Member, Ian Rust who passed away on Monday after a long illness at age 82.

OUR FRATERNITAS AWARDEE

Posted by Tony THOMAS

RCM's Fraternitas awardee, International House ['IH'] student Robert Soh (20), has a seriously international background. He was born in NZ and is a NZ citizen. But as a three month old, he went with his father Mark (an ex-Singaporean, now New Zealander) and mother Virginia (New Zealander) to Hong Kong for several years, and then to Singapore.

If you think he's English-fluent, it's because that's the only language he speaks at home. Virginia speaks some Cantonese as a second language but Mark also speaks Hokkien, Mandarin, and some Cantonese, handy for his pre-retirement career in management with Chevron.

The club's Fraternitas award of $500 is for the IH student best exemplifying citizenship and service to the IH community over three years. Students chose Robert by vote for his leadership and student admin work. "RCM's awards to IH are highly regarded," he says.

GUEST SPEAKER'S PRESENTATION 6th DECEMBER

Posted by Daniel LIM

Clare Fargher, Nutritionist

More Energy and Better Sleep Through Your Diet

"Eat according to your energy needs not your emotional needs."

Clare explained she is qualified nutritionist who uses researched, evidence based, strategies to provide practical advice.

She emphasised the importance of nutritious food, especially as we age, to ensure we remain healthy, vigorous and disability free. As a teenager she struggled with her weight and has empathy with those wanting to lose weight and those who are struggling to find the right foods to help with their health issues.

Ranked behind excessive drinking and smoking, diet has the next most profound impact on long term health. Diet impacts risk of heart disease, hypertension, osteoporosis, stroke, diabetes and cancer. Excess nutrition is the main cause of obesity, not lack of exercise and portion size is very important. Most Australian portions are too large.
