EAT, DRINK & BE HOLYOKE!

The Annual Holyoke Rotary Wine Tasting will take place on Thursday, October 2, 2014 with many new changes this year to accommodate the growth and success of this event. Changes to the event include: the name ‘EAT, DRINK & BE HOLYOKE’; the addition of tasting stations from local restaurants; a larger selection of wine; live music; new location at Gateway City Arts in Holyoke. Proceeds will benefit Children’s Literacy. To help with this event, please contact Brittney Kelleher.

Member Directory

Rebecca MacGregor will be creating an updated member directory - not as fancy (or costly) as the ones we previously provided, but a handy printable of all the members.
She will use the contact information from Club

Runner, but is requesting member pictures. If you have a picture or yourself or Rotary friends, please email to rotary.macg@gmail.com or text it to 508-579-6427. Rebecca can also take a quick picture of you at an upcoming meeting.

BACK TABLE AWARD

If you missed the September 23 Holyoke Rotary Club Meeting, you also missed the presentation of the annual “Back Table Award!” This year’s award was given to Bob Desnoyers. Next time you see Bob, be sure to ask him what he received as an award and the reasoning behind it.

GOOD LUCK TO JON LUMBRA
If you missed the September 30 Holyoke Rotary Club Meeting, you missed the announcement that Jon Lumbra has accepted a position as Treasurer for the City of Lowell. He will remain as President of the Holyoke Rotray Club, he will remain as the Treasurer of the City of Holyoke (for the time being at least) and he and his family will continue to live in Holyoke. With that, his plate will be full, just not with rotary lunches! We will be missing him at many weekly meetings. GOOD LUCK JON!
