Rotary at Work Day

Rotary at Work Day reminder - April 27, 2019. On this day, various Rotary Club members around the world, along with their friends and family members, will join forces to participate in activities that benefit their community and society as a whole. The work is a mechanism that is adopted in order to give back to society. We need several volunteers for ideas on projects and for participating in those projects. Bring your ideas to the next few meetings so or NW Austin Club can set the standard in participation.

Quarterly Paul Harris Fellow Awards

Today’s meeting features our quarterly Paul Harris Fellowship (PHF) award ceremony, which will recognize our club members who have contributed to the Rotary Foundation and attained their first or subsequent PHF level.

The Rotary Foundation is a great force for good locally as well as internationally. Any Rotarian that donates or is recognized for donations in the amount of $1,000 become a Paul Harris Fellow. After being recognized once it is possible to be recognized again as PHF+1, PHF+2 all the way up to PHF+8.

Traditionally there is a ceremony in which the history of the Paul Harris Fellows is retold and the new or recently awarded fellows are given pins. Each additional level beyond the first awards a new pin with small gemstones corresponding to each level. The awardees to be honored today for this past quarter are:

- Allan Adams PHF+1
- Bob Allen PHF+6
- Brigitte Benquet PHF+2
- Angela Caffey PHF+5
- Jim Henry PHF+6
- Mike Jagers PHF+1
- Patrick McGuinness PHF
- Josh Reeley PHF
- Michelle Sanders PHF
- Debbie Tam PHF+5
