The program was changed on short notice to a fellowship meeting

At the end of lunch Pres. Doddy invited all to a lively discussion on law and lawyers. While intended to be a discourse about why too often attorneys are involved in minor misunderstandings and disputes that would just a few years ago been settled without legal and court mitigation. At the end it became a debate about attorneys and some of the challenges people in general have with members of the legal fraternity.

The topic immediately generated lively comments from members and visitors. A clear indication that legal matters and the actions and activities of attorneys occupy many amongst us.
