World Rotaract Week March 10-16, 2013 Rotaract Club of Saint Lucia

The week of activities ended on Saturday March 16 with a Seminar on “Building a Passion for Peace” held at the Castries Comprehensive Secondary School. In attendance were students from the Interact Clubs at Babonneau Secondary School, Sir Ira Simmons Secondary School, the Saint Joseph’s Convent and the Saint Mary’s College.

World Rotaract week was held under the motto

I Peace,
We Peace,
World peace

PE Doddy presented on law environment and peace

PP Albert put together an amazing presentation with just 15 minutes notice

Mr. Terry Finistere from LIME

Other presenters were Mrs. Onel Sanford-Belle of DBS

President Konrad

and many Rotaractors coordinated the workshop

World Rotaract Week March 10-16, 2013 Rotaract Club of Saint Lucia

There were also several excellent presentations from Rotaractors

And of course ice breakers like the #7 game

At the end every student received a Peace certificate of participation and it could not have been a better spent day

At this meeting GSE participant Ms. Laverne Verdant shared her experiences made in England

In her powerpoint presentation she introduced the rest of the GSE Team and shared stories and photos from her 4 weeks visit to the heart of England.

The hands of Laverne had members listen attentively throughout her presentation

Babonneau water tank update

The water tank has left the UK and is expected to arrive in Saint Lucia Saturday March 23, 2013.

All funds have been received from The Rotary Foundation and the payment in the amount of $ 38,377.80 was made to WASCO on Tuesday for them to start their work on connections, lines etc. in preparation for the flow of water from the tank in late April early May.

A date for the official handing over ceremony has been tentatively set for the last weekend in May and AG Tim and PP Lisle are in the final stages of planning the ceremony and fellowship.
