This being a fellowship meeting Pres. Doddy used the opportunity for an open forum discussion

A very lively discussion on the often tragically ending violence and abuse between men and women as well as women and men took place. Especially the question of how serious we are about it as a society stuck a cord. Are we truly prepared to address the violence amongst us? Or does it only concern us when it happens close to home.

What about corporal punishment in schools?
Are we setting the right signal generation next?

The formal meeting was followed by good old fellowship where the discussion seems to have continued!
It concerns all of us very much so let us not stop shining a light on it.

Thank you Rot. Mary

The fellowship at Rot. Mary's home was well attended and all had a good time.

It seems the pool was left for the next generation
At least the pictures say so

A good fellowship if this is all that is left from the bar

The catering arranged by Dir. Selma's team from the NSDC was on time like a Swiss clock and by all accounts the food was scrumptious. Mary proved to be the accommodating host as always allowing us to take over her home. At the end of the day she even put on a movie on her own home theatre. Not so sure everybody stayed awake.
