Pictures from the joint meeting of the Rotary Clubs of Gros Isle and Saint Lucia

By all accounts the luncheon at The Edge Restaurant in Rodney Bay was well attended and deemed a success.

Here are Rot. Sue and Pres. Doddy in a best smile competition with visiting Rotarians from Guernsey, who had also helped in the recovery efforts after Hurricane Tomas.

Several Rotarians brought their spouse for lunch

.....others posed with somebody else's date or just anybody

And Pedro even sported his by now famous Christmas hat. A fashion statement in colour, undoubtedly from the last Millennium

Thank you to Pres. Marcelline and team for organising the get together. Next year it will be our turn again

Christmas Hamper donations

Rot. David went above and beyond the call of duty and pulled all registers to put the Christmas Hamper donations together. After endless phone calls and e-mails he was able to put supplies together that were with the help of Members of the Rotary Club of Gros Islet packaged into 100 hampers.

David himself then distributed app. 40 hampers to often single parent homes with special challenges like HIV positive diagnosis and unemployment.

A big thank you goes also to PP Lisle for making his home available for the packing work.

And by the looks of it they had also nice fellowship while doing good

Some of the appreciative recipients as recorded by Rotarian David and Rotarian Sue from the RCGI.
