President Arlene called the meeting to order with the singing of the National Anthem and joint reciting of the Rotary Grace. Sarge Peter Arender invited PP Robin, VP Jeff and Rtn. Davina to share the Head Table. After a lively fellowship session President Arlene reminded Rotarians to check on the wellbeing of missing Rotarians and invited volunteers to do so. Her thought for the week came from Plato. “Be kind to everyone you meet because everyone is fighting a harder battle”. Rtn. Much-needed Donation to Boat Owners

The Rotary Clubs of Barbados and the Cave Shepherd Group have come together to help boat owners and those in the fishing industry restore their livelihoods post Hurricane Beryl.

They have donated 30 thousand dollars to the effort.

Already the Rotary Clubs have provided 40 thousand dollars to help ten boat owners get their boats back into the water.

Pres. Arlene Ross, President of the Rotary Club of Barbados, representing all the Rotary Clubs on the island, says when Hurricane Beryl struck, they immediately sprang into action.

The Cave Shepherd Foundation Community Engagement lead, Dale Niles says they understand the importance of supporting the initiative.

President of the Bridgetown Fisherfolk Association Adrian 'Muscles' Wiltshire says while he did not lose a boat, seeing the decimation to the industry has been painful for him.

And similarly, the President of the Oistins Fisherfolk Association, Natasha Clarke says getting the industry back on its feet is major.

WHY JOIN A ROTARY CLUB?

Syndicated columnist David Brooks says, "We all think we choose what path we take in life, who we socialize and mix with, what views we hold. But those decisions are actually shaped by networks of people." Regardless of gender, generation, or ethnicity, networking with Rotarians will help shape a person's future.

Contrary to the conventional wisdom of many Rotary past, present, and potential leaders, it is not the purpose of Rotary International to do good in the world. Its purpose is to charter and support Rotary clubs. It is not the purpose of Rotary clubs to do good in their community or the world. Their purpose is to create and support Rotarians who embed the ideal of service in their personal, business, and community lives so they will do good in their personal lives, their professions, their community, and the world. That is why individually and collectively . . .

One Community at the Time.
