THANK YOU!

Director Michael - Club Administration, Rtn Ermine and the entire Fellowship Committee would like to extend their thanks to all those who helped to make November 3 fellowship event "EPICUREAN DELIGHT" a successful event.

In the words of Rtn. Ermine:

"Fellow Rotarians,

Thank you all for participating in our 1st Fellowship 'outside' event for this Rotary year. What a Delight!

Under the Directorship of PP Michael our Team - the fellowship committee made it possible.

Firstly, this event would not have taken place without a venue and in that regard we want to say thank you to PDG David and Partner In Service Donna for opening their home to us.

Thank you Director Michael for keeping the Club informed during my absence.

PP Jerry thank you for your guidance.

A special thank you to our Top Chefs PP Ron for the good old fashion BBQ Chicken, Rtn Dianna for her escovitch fish pairing Jamaica with Barbados to create a vegetarian meal option.

Rtn Anthony Shaw, I can still feel the burn from that jerk chicken, thankfully the festivals helped to cool it down - a new pairing.

Thank you to PP Tony Williams and PP Jerry for the local delicacies of corn soup with and without pig tails and souse.

Thank you to Rtn Sanjay who flew over 2,200 km to ensure that we were delighted with the highly anticipated curry pot by the campfire, what an experience! Our bulletin editor Arlene commented 'it was the epicenter of the epicurean delight.'

Thank you to our Sergeant-at-Arms/MC Peter for making us lol, followed by the unstoppable Past Director Winston for 'wilding out' my Fellow Rotarians on the dance floor, in particular party animals PP Michael and PP Lionel.

Thank you to all who attended and please express our appreciation to your partners in service. I believe everyone played a part in making the evening successful by just 'showing up'."
