OCTOBER IS ECONOMIC AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT MONTH

Today represents a Special Day in the life of our Club. It is a Double Celebration!!

We will not only recognise worthy persons at our Annual Pride of Workmanship Awards Dinner, we will extend Welcome to our Patron, Her Excellency, Dame Sandra Mason, G.C.M.G., D.A., Q.C., Governor General of Barbados.

The Pride of Workmanship Awards programme presents an opportunity for the Club to recognise some of those "unsung" heroes making a contribution in our Communities.

This year we are pleased to honour persons who have aided young men through sport. Every year we are pleased to honour those persons in our society who have worked over and above the call of duty in order to help those in need and this year is no exception.

OUR PATRON

Dame Sandra Prunella Mason, GCMG, D.A., Q.C. was born on the 17th day of January, 1949 in East Point, St. Philip, Barbados.

On leaving St. Catherine's Primary School at age nine, she attended Queen's College, where she successfully obtained seven GCE O Level qualifications and A Level qualifications in French and English.

Her tertiary level education at the University of the West Indies (UWI), Cave Hill Campus, Barbados and the Hugh Wooding Law School, Trinidad, saw her obtain a Bachelor of Laws (LL.B) degree in 1973 and a Certificate of Legal Education in 1975, respectively. In doing so, she became the first Barbadian female Attorney-at-Law to have graduated from the Hugh Wooding Law School.

In 1998, she completed a course in Judicial Administration at RIPA, London, and a course in Alternative Dispute Resolution at the University of Windsor, Canada and Stitt Field Hendy Houston ADR Ltd. in 2000.

In 2001, she completed a fellowship at the Commonwealth Judicial Education Institute, Canada, and advanced courses in Alternative Dispute Resolution by the University of the West Indies and University of Windsor, Canada.

Dame Sandra began her career as a teacher at the Princess Margaret Secondary School. She left teaching and worked at Barclays Bank DCO, Barbados, and was promoted to Trust Administrator for the period 1975-1976.

She was later transferred to Barclays Bank Jamaica Ltd., then returned to Barbados and continued her banking career with Barclays Finance Corporation.

In 1978, she began working as a Magistrate of the Juvenile and Family Court, while simultaneously tutoring in Family Law at UWI following a brief stint as an Attorney-at-Law in private practice. She served on the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child from its inception in 1991 until 1999, serving both as Chair and Vice-Chair. She was also one of two women who were appointed to the 13-member CARICOM Commission charged with evaluating regional integration.

She is a member of many civic and Commonwealth organisations including: President of the Commonwealth Secretariat Arbitral Tribunal (CSAT) UK; Chairman of the Community Legal Services Commission; Member of the Judicial and Legal Services Commission; Member & former Vice Chairman of the Royal Commonwealth Society; Board member of PAREDOS; Patron of the Ruth and Esther Ministry, Mount Zion Missions Inc.; Trustee of the Ermine Holmes Community Trust; Member of the Commonwealth Magistrates and Judges Associations and a Member of the International Association of Women Judges.

Dame Sandra also served as Ambassador to Venezuela, Chile, Colombia and Brazil for the period 1993-1994. Upon her return to Barbados, she was appointed as Chief Magistrate and later became the Registrar of the Supreme Court.

She continued to serve as Registrar of the Supreme Court until 2005, when she was appointed to the Inner Bar of Barbados as Queen's Counsel. Later that year, she was appointed as a High Court Judge of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court where she served until 2008, when she was sworn in as the first female Court of Appeal Judge of the Supreme Court of Barbados. On the 1st day of January, 2014, she was the first Barbadian to be appointed as a member of the Commonwealth Secretariat Arbitral Tribunal (CSAT), based in London, England. In 2017, she became the first female President of that tribunal.

She has held membership in various organisations and associations and has chaired or was a member of numerous boards and committees over the years. With such an outstanding career, Dame Sandra also takes an avid interest in reading, playing scrabble, watching cricket and travelling.

However, her greatest achievement is being the mother of son Matthew, who is also an Attorney-at-Law.

On 27 December 2017, it was announced that Her Majesty The Queen, on the recommendation of Her Majesty's Ministers in Barbados, had been graciously pleased to approve the appointment of The Honourable Sandra Prunella Mason, Justice of Appeal, as the eighth Governor-General of Barbados, with effect from 8 January 2018.

With Mason's appointment as Governor-General, Her Majesty The Queen agreed to confer on her the honour and dignity of Dame Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George (GCMG).
