RECAP OF APRIL 18 2019– FELLOWSHIP MEETING

Last Thursday was a Fellowship Meeting. President Shawn thanked All Members, Partners and Family who would have eagerly participated in the house painting projects in the previous two weeks.

The assignments were at the School House for Special needs and at the second home which related to the Club Project. He reported that the recipient expressed much thanks to the Rotary Team for making her accommodation much more comfortable.

As reported in the Chat:

"Great work Team. Dawn is over the moon with her new peach bathroom and much pinker house"

Council Elevates Rotaract

The 2019 Council has completed its work. Among its most important actions, the Council elevated the status of Rotaract clubs, allowing them to join Rotary International the way that Rotary clubs do. The change is intended to increase the support that Rotaract clubs receive from RI and to enhance their ability to serve. The Council is made up of representatives from each Rotary district, and meets every three years in Chicago, Illinois, USA, to review the rules that govern the organization.

Attracting younger leaders to Rotary

How can Rotary clubs reach more young people? What role should young leaders play in a club's recruitment strategy? LaShonda Delivuk, the 29-year-old President of the Rotary Club of Lynchburg-Morning, Virginia, USA, definitely knows something about younger leaders and attracting young people to Rotary.

When club leaders were asked recently about their biggest membership challenges, 31 percent said they struggle to motivate members to participate in club activities, volunteer for service projects, and serve in leadership roles. "There is this perception that you have to be perfect to be impactful in Rotary," LaShonda says. "But perfection doesn't exist. And we certainly don't need any 'perfect' Rotarians. What we need is a group of service-minded leaders who are willing to stand up as they are and simply be present." She has modeled this in her own life by being transparent about how she leads her club while keeping her Rotary responsibilities manageable.

At this year's International Assembly, LaShonda took the stage to inspire the next class of district governors to think in new ways about Rotary and the balance members are searching for. The key, she says, is "showing them you find their time to be valuable. If you can make Rotary worth someone's time, not only will we change Rotary, but we will change the world."

OBJECT OF ROTARY
