CELEBRATE—ROTARY IS A GIFT

Program: Roger Kinney and Mark Flatley, K9
Officer, West Sacramento Police Department

Rotary members and guests were given a demonstration of the skills of West Sacramento's Police Department's K9 officers in action. The K9 unit was started in 1988. The unit has had between two and three K9 teams at any one time. Officers Roger Kinney and Mark Flatley showed the dogs in action in the parking lot behind the Club Pheasant. Zar, handled by Office Kinney is a Dutch Shepherd and can jump over a nine foot tall fence. They have been teamed together for six years. They are certified to find suspects and illegal drugs. Officer Kinney and Zar have competed in 43 competitions and have won 96 awards. They are also residents of West Sacramento. Office Mark Flatley has been a police officer for five years. Prior to becoming a K9 handler six months ago, he was the designated "bad" guy in training for 18 months. Before joining the department, he served in the US Army and served tours in Iraq. Bolo is a German Shepherd from Holland. He is certified to find suspects and to find nine types of explosives. Officer Flatley and Bolo have competed in two competitions and have already won 5 awards.

CECIL "PANCHE" PADILLA DISCOVERING A PASSION FOR HELPING PEOPLE

Cecil "Pancho" Padilla's emotions hover so close to the surface that at times they engulf him without warning. As he recalls his involvement in setting up a Rotarian-supported dental clinic in Mulege, Mexico, his voice suddenly wavers: "I went over to the tree from where he was looking on and asked him why he wasn't part of the celebration. He said, 'I'm so embarrassed. I'm ashamed. You provided my daughter what I can't provide.'" Padilla wipes his eyes with the back of his hand, breathes deeply, and composes himself before finishing the story.

If you spend any time with Pancho, you discover that this instantaneous flood of feeling is not unusual. During his Rotary work in the field, which has taken him to more than 70 countries, he keeps his emotions in check and contributes his skills as a self-taught mechanic who can fix just about anything. But once he's back home, with time to reflect, the memories reemerge with a raw power, holding him hostage until they subside. The ROTARIAN – MAY 2013
