Our Program: League of Women Voters

When women first won their battle for the right to vote in 1920, no one could have predicted the eventual impact that women would have on American politics. Susan Harrington and Nicole Naddy of the newly re-constituted League of Women Voters (LWV) of West Sacramento addressed our Club on their tradition and on the subject of their April 3, 2018 Candidate’s Forum to be held at West Sacramento City Hall, from 7 pm to 8:30 pm.

Co-hosted by the LWV Davis Chapter, this event will feature candidates for County Assessor School Superintendent, Sheriff and District Attorney on the local Yolo County ballot for the election to be held on June 5, 2018.

All candidates have been invited to attend. All candidates have confirmed their attendance except Jeff Riesig whose campaigner scheduler reported he is unable to attend due to a previous scheduling conflict.

For the 25th time, a card was drawn from the deck, but this time, Tim Kwong pulled the Joker!

Tim won our “door prize”, which had grown to $. Now, a new deck comes into play, and the prize amount re-sets to $250. The Club subsidizes this amount, until luncheon attendance covers cost, after which, the pot will start to grow again...
