

Mick Martin

Since graduating from West Sacramento's James Marshall High School (renamed River City H.S.) in 1967, Mick Martin has had a long and varied career in the entertainment business. Playing in bands as a youngster and publishing his own magazine at the age of 13, he has also been a television personality, a best-selling author and a film critic, columnist and feature story writer for the now-defunct Sacramento Union newspaper. After being hired as a freelance writer in 1976, Martin went on to join the staff reviewing "Star Wars" in 1977 and interviewing the film stars of the era until 1996. His journalism career spun off to television when Sacramento's Channel 40 debuted its "10 o'clock NewsPlus." This led to reviews on radio's legendary KZAP FM. In 1989, station program director Pat Still tapped Martin as to be host/producer of "The KZAP Blues Show." In 1991, Capitol Public Radio inaugurated KXJZ FM as a companion station to classical station KXPR and Martin was on board as the creative force behind the internationally-known "Mick Martin's Blues Party," which continues to thrive in its 29th year. Meanwhile, Martin teamed with local high school teacher Marsha Porter (after lecturing to her class) as the co-creator of the best-selling "Video Movie Guide." He also acted as ghost writer for character actor John Mitchum (the "Dirty Harry" films) on the book, "Them Ornerly Mitchum Boys," about the lives of John and his brother, Robert Mitchum, as well as contributing most of his in-depth interview with Jack Kelly (Bart Maverick) to Ed Robertson's "Maverick: Legend of the West" book.

Martin has played blues harmonica professionally since 1968 and, since 1983, has led Mick Martin and the Blues Rockers through various incarnations, recording 17 CDs for his own label, Blues Rock Records, and one each for labels in England, Belgium, Germany and Holland. On March 31, 1994, Mick did something highly unusual for a harmonica player: he performed at Carnegie Hall for the nationally-broadcast "Blues in Jazz" concert with mentor, jazz organist Jimmy Smith, Jimmy Witherspoon, Grover Washington Jr., Carrie Smith and Mark Whitfield. That same year, he was featured on Jimmy Smith's Fantasy/Milestone Records release, "Sum Serious Blues." Mick has also played harmonica on stage behind Freddie King, Jimmy Rogers, Bo Diddley, Mick Taylor (the Rolling Stones), the Yardbirds, Kim Simmonds and Savoy Brown, Nick Gravenites, Barry Goldberg (with the Electric Flag and the Chicago Blues Reunion), Roy Brown and many others; he currently pops up as a special guest with favorite performers: England's Matt Schofield, Cafe R&B, the Laurie Morvan Band, Tommy Castro and others. He is a featured artist on Dig Music's Bob Dylan tribute, "Positively 12th & K," which also features Sal Valentino and Jackie Greene. His explosive performance of "Lonesome Day Blues," backed by Greene's band, has been singled out by numerous reviewers as the live album's best track. On April 20, 2016, Martin appeared as a member of Harvey Mandel's Snakecrew at the 40th anniversary of Woodstock in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park, where every surviving artist from that legendary event also appeared.

Mick shared Canada's Real Blues magazine's "Best West Coast Blues Harmonica Player" nod with Mark Hummel in 2001 and the group has been touted as "The Best West Coast Blues Band" by that magazine for six years running. Mick Martin and the Blues Rockers have won the Sacramento Area Music Award (a.k.a. the SAMMIES) for "Best Blues Band" three times, thus entitling them to a place in the SAMMIES Hall of Fame. He is also in the Sacramento Blues Society's Hall of Fame and currently serves on the nominating board for that organization. Currently leading the seven-piece, horn-section powered Mick Martin Big Band, he frequently quotes comedian Jimmy Durante saying, "You ain't seen nothing yet!"

Problem:

- Approximately 1,000 to 1,200 school children in school without drinking water meeting standards
- The children are between the ages of four and seventeen with poor sanitation facilities
- They stay in school from 6:00 am to 6:00 pm to escape violence and engage in studies and activities

Solution:

- Replace existing storage tank of 600 gallons with a reinforced concrete tank of 30,000 gallons
- Include chlorination system and filtration, as appropriate, and rehabilitate sanitation facilities
- Estimated cost is about $40,000

Rotary District 5180 Blood Drive Challenge

Jack Arney has a new challenge for us with BloodSource! For more than 60 years, Rotarians with families, friends and co-workers have teamed up to ensure a safe and plentiful blood supply for our communities. Our nonprofit organizations – working together – add up to a world of good.

Join your fellow Rotarians in changing lives!

Change lives!
Donate from April 16, 2018 to April 15, 2019 and change lives in multiple ways. Your blood donation helps patients live and inspires others to do good. Make sure to mention your Rotary Club when you – or family, friends and co-workers – give a gift of life.

Inspire!
Donating blood exemplifies the Rotary motto of Service Above Self and with BloodSource, your donation goes further.

FOUR clubs will receive financial sponsorships (awarded at the 2019 District Conference) with one winner selected in each the following categories: highest percentage of club membership, and most points attained for a small, medium and large club. It's your choice to use the financial sponsorship for events, special projects or in ways your Rotary Club impacts communities.

Rewarding!
In addition to MyBloodSource Rewards redeemable online for various items, you'll also earn the following for your club:

You give: Whole Blood	Automated Donation (platelets/plasma)
You receive: (1) Rotary Point	(2) Rotary Points

Schedule your donation at my.bloodsource.org or call 866.822.5663 and make it count by telling them it's for your Rotary Club!

Questions?

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the: ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD: The application of ideal of service by every Rotarian to his/her/ personal, business and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideals of service.

ADDITIONAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please see Siva or refer to his email for any information on the club's International Honduras Water Project.

As Siva pointed out, this is not just his project, but the entire club's project. All members should think about pledges as they are tax deductible. Contact Siva for more information. He has the forms.

WE HAVE REACHED OUR GOAL!!!!

ROTARY HISTORY

The 4-Way Test

One of the most widely printed and quoted statements of business ethics in the world is the Rotary "4-Way Test." It was created by Rotarian Herbert J. Taylor in 1932 when he was asked to take charge of the Chicago based Club Aluminum Company, which was facing bankruptcy. Taylor looked for a way to save the struggling company mired in depression-caused financial difficulties. He drew up a 24-word code of ethics for all employees to follow in their business and professional lives. The 4-Way Test became the guide for sales, production, advertising, and all relations with dealers and customers, and the survival of the company was credited to this simple philosophy. Herb Taylor became President of Rotary International during 1954-1955. The 4-Way Test was adopted by Rotary in 1943 and has been translated into more than 100 languages and published in thousands of ways. The message should be known and follows by all Rotarians.
