Kitty O'Neal KFBK Radio Personality

By David Kamminga

Kitty O'Neal has worked for KFBK for 37 years. Her father was a Rotarian and a member of the Rancho Cordova Club. Kitty got her degree in communications. She sang in bands and toured over Northern California and Reno. She worked in the Real Estate business for Lyon. She was negotiating for a band job with the Sacramento Bee (McClatchy) while looking for a job she discovered that McClatchy also owned two radio stations an AM talk station and an FM country station and she didn't listen to either of them. But thankfully she took an interest in the talk station. She applied and went to the station to talk with the news director who she likened to Lou Grant from the Mary Tyler Moore television series. Since she was a young person playing in a band, when asked who her councilmembers, assembly members etc.... and she didn't know the answers and felt clueless. When she drove home she felt horrible like she blew the whole opportunity. Being so upset with herself, she was determined to get the answer to every question that was asked and she didn't know. She found out all of the answers, and there was no Google back then. She then called the "Lou Grant" news director and told him "I know you're not going to hire me but I just want you to know that I found out all the answers to the questions you asked me. She went down the whole list giving him the answers and, Thank you for your time to interview me" This phone call got her the job. So now she found herself in the news talk radio business. Her first assignment was with Morton Downey Jr. She has memories of him being nice off the air. She had to field calls from some of his controversial comments. He eventually was fired for these calls. She then got to work with Rush Limbaugh. She has wonderful memories with Rush even being invited to New York to celebrate when his show was picked up on syndication and went nationwide. She saw Rush transform from a comedic show into a very political one. Kitty also has great memories of working with Tom Sullivan and Commander Bill. Her show is on KFBK 1530am/93.1fm Monday through Friday 4-7pm and also you can catch it on the iheartradio app and website.

OPENING REMARKS: "This Week in History April 23rd — April 29th"

1957 – Elvis presley recorded his immortal hit "Jailhouse Rock" The multi million selling single spent seven weeks at #1 and was a worldwide smash as the featured recording in the film of the same name

1962 – The Platters, America's first ambassadors of Rock N Roll began a ten-day tour of Spain. Afterward, they would become the first American Rock N Roll act to perform behind the "Iron Curtain" when they appeared in Poland.

1963 – Lesley Gore's debut Single "It's my party" was rush released when producer Quincy Jones found out that Phil Spector was planning on re-recording the song with The Crystals. In a story that could only happen in the 1960s, the record was recorded on a Monday, manufactured on Tuesday, and on the air by Wednesday.

1964 – Keith Moon made his first appearance as the drummer for The Who (then calling themselves The Detours). At a twenty-first birthday party at a British Pub. Fifteen years later to the day he was replaced by Kenny Jones after his death

1964 – The Beatles "Can't Buy Me Love" single spent its last of five weeks at #1 in America. It was beaten out for a sixth week by Louis Armstrong's "Hello Dolly"

1966 – Roy Orbison hit the top 100 for the twenty-sixth time when his single "Twinkle Toes" charted on its way to #39. He would not hit the top 40 again for twenty six years until his comeback single "You Got It" charted reaching #9 in 1989

1969 – Tommy James and the Shondells agent turned down an offer for the act to perform at Woodstock, calling it, "A stupid gig on a pig farm in upstate New York"

1974 – The Carpenters performed at a White House state dinner at the request of President Nixon in honor of West German Chancellor Willy Brandt.

1984 – After breaking up in 1976, Deep Purple regrouped. Rumor has it that they (Richie Blackmore, Roger Glover, Jon Lord, Ian Gillan, and Ian Paice) were each offered $12 Million to reunite.

And the number one song in 1972 – The First Time... Ever I saw your face by Roberta Flack
