

Hail to the Chief!

And just like that, with the ring of the bell, the peaceful transition of power in the Mighty Rotary Club of West Sacramento was complete and the celebration of National Different Colored Eye Day had begun. Peter Anderson boldly took the podium in what can only be described as historic. For the first time in our storied 71-year history, a man named Peter Anderson was in charge. Sure, 71 years ago, Egon Anderson was the first president of our mighty club, but never have we had an Anderson as president with a name other than Egon, until now. Historic.

Joining Peter in this historic endeavor was his competent Board of Directors and leadership team. President Anderson held his first club assembly and, after Past President & Club Chaplain Tim Carnahan lead us in prayer, each board member walked us through the plans for the exciting, upcoming year. A few highlights: noticeably absent was the traditional opening song led by the also noticeably absent Song Master, past President Dick Marshall, but he has promised to return with a bevy of new and exciting songs for us to sing. Shaun Morrow, along with Chris Bradford, laid out a busy service-above-self Club Service agenda. Past President Mike Campbell and Quirina Orozco will lead Community Service; coordinating the many opportunities to serve the West Sac and Clarksburg communities throughout the year. Mike, along with Steve Heringer, unveiled plans for the club's involvement in moving the original 1883 School House in Clarksburg from its current storage place on Clarksburg Road to its final resting place on the corner of Netherlands Road and Center Street.

David Santiago, Co-chairing with Drew Gidlof, gave us the run-down on Vocational service while Joanie Kapell and JoAnn Moffett will again lead Youth Services. Amy Busch and Dustin Dumars will be sitting at the kid's table; charging credit cards and taking names as Club Secretary and Treasurer respectfully. Amy will also be assisting Jaclyn Powell with Social Media and Webmaster duties. Past Presidents Dan Ramos and Troy Bird are the Speaker Co-chairs this year and promised a great line-up of speakers. Past District Governor and current Foundation Chair Barry Kalar laid out his ambitious goals, including a joint effort with President Peter to increase the individual giving to our own West Sacramento Rotary Foundation and the Rotary International Foundation. As an incentive, our new President will give a bottle of his family's estate bottled Anderson Conn Valley Vineyards wine with every $1,000 donated to the foundation.

Siva Sivakumaran will chair International Service while Lee Harris and Kat Gallagher will serve as the Interact Advisors. Past President Ken Wilson will once again be managing the selection process for our local high school scholarship recipients. These scholarships would not be possible without the generous donations of our club members to our club's West Sacramento Rotary Foundation and the on-going leadership of the foundation provided by Past President Jim Engstrom. Feeding the bulletin editor photographic fodder will again be Dave "Ansel" Kamminga. Membership Committee members including Past President Denice Domke, Past President Ed Rounthwaite, Past President Jeff Post and Katie Villegas promoted the upcoming Why Sip Wine Socials. Steve Orin pulls double duty as our Rotary Youth Exchange Chair and the club's Sergeant-at-Arms. Carol Bogart will again serve as our Sunshine Chair. Past President and triple-threat; golden-throated-singing, sax playing, perennial Dad of the Year award winner, Tom Wallace, received the loudest ovation of the meeting as he again leads our mighty club's Meals on Wheels program and its dedicated army of Rotarians. New Fine Master & Past President, Tim Kwong, brought us ice-cream and President-Elect John Raney inspired us with a heart-felt plug for the 7 basic food groups. Let's roll!
