Program: Jeff Ronten—Denio's Market Farmers Market and Swap Meet

In 1947, Jim and Marilee Denio began selling produce out of the back of a pickup truck. 67 years later, the business maintains the largest farmers' market and garage sale in the region. Jeff Ronten, the company's President/CEO, continues working with the family and maintains many of the original values held by Jim and Marilee. As the business expanded, the Denio's opened up space to individual vendors. Today, for $25 a person can rent space to set up their own garage sale. For businesses reselling products, liquating, or selling hand-craft items, a vendor permit is required. Denio's will assist those want to rent space. Those who grew up in the Sacramento region may remember the Denio's jingle "What's new at Denio's..." The company has totally shifted it's marketing to social media; they have a significant presence on Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, and other forums. On Facebook, Denios has over 50,000 "likes." Denio's maintains a family-safe environment. They are open Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays. So when you have time, "take a peek at Denio's."
