Pop-Up Meeting Huge Success!

Friday the 13th's meeting of the Mighty Rotary Club of West Sacramento broke new ground as the club broke from tradition; bypassing our home at the Pheasant Club and invading the home of Past President Denice Domke for our first Pop-up Rotary Meeting. Denice rolled out the red carpet for our members and their guests including a wonderful spread of food and drink with the goal of having a great time and exposing potential new members to the Rotary Way by passing the test; "is it beneficial to all concerned" - check, check and check!

This editor hates to rub it in but, just in case you missed the meeting, you might not want to miss the next one! All attendees were in shock when membership chair extraordinaire Domke, strolled into the backyard to her own theme song, assisted musically by Tim "Chariots of Fire" Kwong playing Katie Perry's, "You're Gonna Hear Me Roar", and proceeded to point to each and every member in attendance, exclaiming, "and You get a car, and YOU get a car, and YOU get a car...!" Each club member drove home in a brand new Chevy Zap and, needless to say, the guests in attendance began filling out applications for membership. All agreed; Denice Domke- best Membership Chair ever!

Please note that we are not looking for professional production values or special effects!
