ROTARY NOTES:

The ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT:

As a ROTARIAN, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life.
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect.
3. Use my professional skills through ROTARY to: Mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world.
4. Avoid behavior that reflects adversely on ROTARY or other ROTARIANS
5. Not seek special business or professional advantages from other ROTARIANS.

HOW DO YOU REGARD YOUR ROTARIAN MAGAZINE?

Here's what one ROTARIAN feels about his monthly ROTARIAN: "Why do I, a tech nerd, stick with the printed version of the ROTARIAN magazine? I believe that a picture is worth a thousand words. Every month, the magazine arrives at my office, where mail for the entire 21 story building is sorted in the basement. Each ROTARIAN receiving the magazine at a physical address is making a visual impact on non-ROTARIANS who see our message. The magazine can be easily shared, passed around the office and left in the break room. In an age of falling revenues and rising prices, a real paper and-ink publication is a rarity, which is just one of the reasons I find the ROTARIAN to be a treasure."

As a ROTARY member you should be receiving the monthly magazine. If you aren't, contact Renee Lowery, our secretary.

Airplane pioneer Orville Wright was born in 1871. He was a long time member of the ROTARY Club of Dayton, Ohio.

Next ROTARY INTERNATIONAL convention is in Sao Paulo, Brazil in 2015.

AROUND TOWN

Owatonna Park and Recreation is sponsoring a "Movie in the Park" this Friday, August 22 in Central Park. Bring the entire family to enjoy a night out. The film "Yogi Bear" will be shown beginning at 8:15 p.m. There will be free popcorn provided by the Owatonna VFW.

The massive cleanup on the fairgrounds will begin today by a reduced grounds crew. (some members of the grounds crew have returned to school this week.) The fairgrounds looks like a mess today, but by the end of this week you'll never know such a big event was held there. Hope you all had a good time at the fair. Next year's fair dates are August 18-23 with the theme, "Fun, Food and Screams" in 2015.

My wife was hinting about what she wanted for our upcoming anniversary. She said, "I want something shiny that goes from 0 to 165 in about two seconds." I bought her a bathroom scale. That's when the fight started.

HAVE A GREAT ROTARY WEEK!
