THIS WEEK: There are some new things happening at the Public Library. Mark Blando, the library director will fill us in.

BIRTHDAYS: Judy Plemel, June 25

NOTES FOR ROTARIANS

EVERY ROTARIAN, EVERY YEAR: The ROTARY FOUNDATION transforms your gifts into service projects that change lives close to home and around the globe. By giving to the Annual Fund, you make these life-changing projects possible so that together, we can keep Doing Good in the World for years to come. Give to rotary.org/donate.

RETIREMENT RECEPTION FOR FORMER ROTARIAN

Former ROTARIAN Police Chief Keith Hiller's last day on the job is June 30. You are invited to a reception at the Owatonna Arts Center on that day from 4:00-7:00. Hiller retires serving as Owatonna Police Chief for 12 years and 35 years in law enforcement.

TAKE IT TO THE BOX

Do you have expired medications laying around the house that are no longer being used. There is a box for their disposal in the entry-way of the Law Enforcement Center where you can dispose of out dated or medications that are no longer being used.

AN INVITATION

The Owatonna Sons of Norway invite ROTARIANS to their mid-summer picnic being held at Jaycee Park tonight. They will be hosting a Brass Quintet Group who will play some of Edvard Grieg's music and other selections. They begin playing around 6:45 and ROTARIANS are invited to come and enjoy.

DID YOU KNOW?

- *Dancers always danced counter-clockwise at the Monterey Ballroom
- *The Russ Morgan Orchestra was the last "Big Band" to play at the Monterey in 1976.
- *Most dust particles in your house are made from Dead Skin!
- *Apples, not caffeine, are more efficient at waking you up in the morning.

JULY 4 AT BRICK-MEGER

ROTARIANS are invited to come to the grounds of President Glen Meger's funeral home on July 4 for an evening of D.J. Music, free watermelon and ice cream (supplied by The Blast), free prizes and a great view of the fireworks. The funeral home rest rooms will be open.

So Anyway: Grandma and Grandpa were visiting their kids overnight. When Grandpa found a bottle of Viagra in his son's medicine cabinet, he asked about using one of the pills. The son said, "I don't think you should take one, Dad, they're very strong and very expensive. "How much?" asked Grandpa. "$10.00 a pill" said the son. "I don't care," said Grandpa. "I'd still like to try one, and before we leave in the morning, I'll put the money under the pillow." Later the next morning, the son found $110 under the pillow. He called Grandpa and said, "I told you each pill was $10.00, not $110.00. "I know," said Grandpa. "The hundred is from Grandma!"
