Our club has again been asked to provide manpower for the food stand at the upcoming Steele County Historical Society Extravaganza, July 14. Watch for more information and sign-up sheets.

The Steele County Historical Society is seeking artifacts and information about local vets that served in the Korean War. If you are a Korean War veteran, have had a veteran in your family or are a family of a deceased veteran and would have a story to tell, please contact the SCHS at 451-1420. The Korean War will be included in the exhibit "Minnesota Homefront".

Today there are 34,297 ROTARY clubs internationally with 1,211,868 members. Recently the ROTARY Club is Male in the new ROTARY country of the Maldives, was officially admitted to membership. The club will be part of District 3220, which also includes Sri Lanka. The Maldives is the first new ROTARY country since April 2012 when the ROTARY Club of Thimphu, Bhutan, was chartered.

So anyway: Ole returned from the golf course one day and told Lena that he and his partner had joined up with two attractive young women. "Ya Lena," he said. "And dey turned out tew be pretty good golfers tew!" "Vell, Ole, did yew learn anything from dem?" asked Lena. "Vell, ya! I sure did, Lena. I learned that it's impossible tew hold my stomach in fer two hours!"
