

Moncton West Rotary Charities, Inc. Funds Request Form

Introduction

The Moncton West Rotary Charities, Inc., accepts funds request applications twice a year, September 30, and March 30 for annual giving. Organizations requesting funding must use the sections below. Please note we only provide funds to registered non-for-profit organizations – not individuals.

The Moncton West Rotary Charities, Inc., considers requests from organizations working in the areas of children and youth programming, healthcare, and low-income families. In particular, Moncton West Rotary Charities, Inc., funds organizations that are engaged in cultivating the character and personal responsibility of children and youth as well as providing intellectually and socially enriching experiences.

Please include the sections below when submitting your application. Additionally, we will need you to please include the following document with your application:
