Community Outreach Team

Through the Community Outreach Team forums, we learn from each other by open dialogue. COT members are from various churches and non-profits. Recent attendees were American Idol's Executive Producer and a 12-time Grammy Award Winner. The forums are roundtable discussions that gives neighbors neutral and a safe platform for their voices to be heard without judgment. It's also a place to have an open dialogue about diversity and hot-button issues that have caused so much disparity between these two conflicting worlds.

Junior Police Academy

The Junior and Teen Police Academies are held over three summer camps designed to strengthen the connection between law enforcement and local youth, giving them a chance to see what it is like to become a cadet police officer over their summer vacation. A variety of different police oriented activities are planned that provide youth a week of fun and educational opportunities
