

THE SUN LIGHT

THE ROTARY CLUB OF GEORGETOWN-SUN CITY
MEETS TUESDAYS, 12:00 P.M. @ SUN CITY BALLROOM
APRIL 14, 2009

Thought of the Week

To arrive at a just estimate of a renowned person's character, one must judge it by the standards of his time, not ours.

Mark Twain

Today's Program

Mel Own will present a program on the art of making ceramics.

Last Program – April 7, 2009

Our speaker, Pat Cossette, was introduced by John Miller. Pat represents The Blood Center of Central Texas. Austin is the main center with satellite facilities in Round Rock, Cedar Park, and Georgetown.

The Blood Center serves 38 medical facilities in 10 counties of Central Texas. It has five to six blood drives each year. We were encouraged to donate blood.

Significant Events

The following people celebrated birthdays: Kim Rollins' husband, Joe, Julian Bucher's son, and George Olive.

Happy Bucks ($37)

Many members were just happy. Chuck Mackay was happy to see former member Bryan Jamison visiting and to know that he is engaged. David Leas was happy his son has taken a job with a promotion at Texas State University.

Tom Minor was happy he retired to Texas and did not stay in the Chicago area. Alex Munson was happy that his wife Patti continues to remain cancer free. John Miller was happy for some cool weather. Chris Mealy was happy his daughter living in Germany has recently had an article published in a magazine.

People on the Move

President Chris was happy to return from "buckeye land". He had an interesting experience while making up a meeting at a Rotary club in Springfield, Ohio.

Leadership by Rotary

During the founding of the United Nations in 1945, 49 Rotarians helped to draft the UN charter in San Francisco. Many of the international delegates were also Rotarians.

April is Magazine Month

The Rotarian

Today, with Rotary's club membership spanning more than 200 countries and the mandate of its publications is more complex, and more vital, than ever. The English-language flagship magazine, The Rotarian, has a circulation of about 500,000. Around the world, 31 more magazines are published in 24 other languages, for a total of 32 magazines and a total circulation of about 1.25 million. D.K. Lee, RI President
