MEETS TUESDAYS, 12:00 P.M. @ SUN CITY BALLROOM
APRIL 21, 2009

Thought of the Week

If we would have new knowledge, we must get a whole world of new questions.

Susanne K. Langer

Today's Program

George Olive presents the Honorable John Bradley, District Attorney for Williamson County.

Last Program – April 14, 2009

Our speaker, Mel Owen, was introduced by Tom Minor. Mel presented a program on the art of ceramic making. On his first visit to ceramics, he was fascinated by what people were making from clay.

Over the past few years, Mel has learned about the different materials to use, kinds of kilns, and processes used to make fine ceramics. He displayed, discussed and passed around his works during his presentation.

Rotary Meeting Reminder

We all need to make sure the tables are cleared at the end of each meeting.

Significant Events

The following people celebrated birthdays: Savanah Truelove and Tom Minor's wife, Lori.

Wedding anniversaries were celebrated by Linda Roberts and her husband, 24 years; and Lou Gibson and his wife, 57 years.

(My recorder does not always pick up announcements because of background noises.)

Happy Bucks ($42)

Many members were happy to be getting tax refunds. Alex Munson was happy to honor Baylor's men's and women's basketball teams' championship play in the Big 12. Bill Miller was happy for his middle school grandson's success in track and field. Tom Powell was happy for the wonderful food being served each week by our caterer. Linda Roberts was happy for her son's success in high school tennis
