Quote of the Week

No problem of human making is too great to be overcome by using ingenuity, energy, and the untiring hope of the human spirit.

George H. W. Bush

Meeting: Nov. 27th

Laura Spradlin was our speaker. She represents the Salvation Army in Williamson County.

She talked about the many ways that the Salvation Army helps persons in need in our county.

Laura was also looking for bell ringers for the different locations in Georgetown

Meeting: Dec. 4th

Dr. Meaghan Khan was our speaker. She is a spokesperson for the new Baylor Scott & White cancer center located in Round Rock.

Dr. Kahn's presentation was about the many services and cancer treatments offered by the center.

Breakfast With Santa

Dec. 9-10 Shopping at Kohl's on Sun. morning and Mon. evening.

Dec. 11 Meeting and special luncheon at the Community Center. We have to set up tables and chairs at 10:30. There is no charge for spouses and special friends. Everyone attending should be signed up.

Able bodied members are asked to remain to help clean up and return the tables and chairs.

Dec. 15 Pancake breakfast at the Community Center.

Please attend this event even if you haven't signed up. John Chenoweth will assign you a job.

Now is the time for all members to help our Rotary Club make this event a continuing success.
