Thought for the Week

Life remains a mystery; enjoy what is now, not what could be.

Today's Program

Kim Rollins is in charge of the day's program.

Last Program-June 2, 2008

Ron DeBock spoke to us about the meaning of the American flag.

Next, Bill Miller introduced Jerri Jones, the executive director of the Williamson County Children's Advocacy Center. Jerri and her husband had careers in the Marine Corps; she retired as a Lt. Colonel.

The Center provides a child-sensitive and safe environment for children and teens to discuss allegations of abuse rather than being interviewed at a police station.

Jerri told us about a new program for community awareness. She speaks to church groups about the work of the Center. Also, she said that the Center now has an Open House schedule for the public to come and visit.

The group, consisting of Bill and Joan Miller, John and Betty Miller, Bill Harrah, and Tom and Lori Minor, prepared and served tacos to 120 future student leaders on July 2nd at the RYLA camp at McKinney Roughs. The squad was under the guidance of PDG Jim Osbon.

David Medley

David's donation to the Rotary Foundation this year elevated him to a Paul Harris +4 level. This pin was awarded to him on June 24. In attendance were Lou Gibson, Art Tragesser, Bill Harrah and Bill Miller.

Paperwork has been submitted to allow David to use his accumulated Recognition Points to give each of his four children the Paul Harris Award. Dave had enough points for three children and Bill Harrah volunteered to donate 1000 of his points toward the fourth award.

Marble Falls Fish Fry

Remember that the Rotary Club of Marble Falls is holding their annual Fish Fry on Friday, July 11, at 6 o'clock at the high school. It is a fun event, not a fundraiser. See others from across the District, hear a speaker, and enjoy a good meal and fellowship.

Hopefully, some members from our club will attend.

Editor's Note

There will not be The Sun Light during most of July and August because the Minors will be on the road and out of Texas.
