Quote of the Week

The only time my prayers are never answered is on the golf course.

Rev. Billy Graham

Meeting: March 6th

Marissa Austin did a presentation on the organization, CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates). They come to the aid of abused children.

CASA is looking for volunteers, but it requires a commitment of 12 to 18 months of service.

Meeting: March 13th

We listened to a presentation by Rotarians Patrick Harrison and Amber Scarborough on how to create a more public image for our club.

New Rotarian

Sam Richardson, the executive director of the Delaney, was inducted into our club.

Welcome, Sam!

The SC Rotary's Club Permanent Endowment Fund as of Dec. 31, 2017

Our fund at Chisolm Trail Communities Foundation had an account balance of $113,454 on Dec. 31. This total was comprised of $98,114 in donations made to fund since inception in June 2010 and $15,340 in unexpended earnings.

Donations in 2017 totaled $3,563. Net account investment earnings totaled $12,820. Only $5000 was withdrawn to support Jarrell senior scholarships and Early Act/First Knight.

Over the life of this fund, net earnings have totaled $40,740. Our club has withdrawn $25,400 of these earnings to fund club outreach projects.

This report was prepared by Bill Miller.

Please remember to bus your tables each Tuesday!
