Quote of the Week

It takes time to persuade people to support things even if it is for their own good.

Thomas Jefferson

Meeting Order (March 10)

Presiding Bob Elam
Prayer Gordon Bishop
Pledge Malcolm Hensley
4-WayTest Mike McGaughan

Guests of Rotarians

Debbie Schwebke/wife of John Schwebke

Last Program(March 17,)

Members received their packets, an explanation of the raffle tickets, and information pertaining to our upcoming dinner/dance.

Our thanks to the members that volunteered their time to put the packets together.

The meeting rooms were decorated in green plus hanging balloons to help celebrate St. Patrick's Day.

Happy Bucks ($152)

I am having trouble hearing members speak because of the background noise.

Rotarians in the News

Bea Wallis is being transferred to Austin, but we hope it is only temporary.

We welcomed back Jim Whittaker, Keith and Sharon Goudy, Gordon Bishop, Malcolm Hensley, and Jamie Mattison.

It was a first for our club when Mike McGaughan led us in singing the 4-Way Test.

Mike will no longer be listed as a visiting Rotarian

Membership Matters

Lou Gibson does this segment each week to help us take pride in the accomplishments of Rotary knowing we are a members of this service organization.

Lou spoke of the history of Rotary and its goal to completely eliminate polio worldwide.

RYLA Program

The club thanks the members who introduced the program to Jarrell High School students. At a later time, John Skannal, Barb Pekar, Carolyn Holloway, Tom Minor, and Don Kaminski interviewed applicants for RYLA and chose 2 students plus 2 alternates to attend the leadership camp in late June near Bastrop.

Thank you, John Skannal, for your leadership and hard work on this project.

Early Act/First Knight

John Schwebke is looking for members to join this committee.
