Last Program(Feb.24,2015)

A club assembly was held. President Bob reviewed the EarlyAct FirstKnight® basics and costs. He noted that the program was already in 30 schools in our Rotary district with 3 of them in Georgetown. The Downtown club is the primary sponsor at this time. The membership voted in favor of supporting this program.

Jarrell School Visit(Feb. 17)

Twenty-seven members took a field trip to Jarrell and rode on a new bus provided by their district. They visited the new middle school.

Rotarians were welcomed by principal Abbe Lester, and lunch was provided by the school.

Superintendent and fellow Rotarian Dr. Bill Chapman gave an overview of the school system noting that Jarrell ISD presently has 1305 students with more enrolling each day. After a guided tour of the middle school it was back to Sun City in the big yellow school bus.

Polio Plus

It is not too late to contribute to this Rotary program. Checks or cash can still be given to Foundation Chairman John Chenoweth.

Happy Bucks ($78)

Members enjoyed this year's Follies while others were happy to ride the bus to Jarrell and tour the middle school.

Don Mabray was happy for another Baylor women's championship season.

Rotarians in the News

Adaire Wolf is stepping down as the Chairperson of the food committee, and a replacement is needed.

Ray Bergman participated in the Follies
