Last Program(March 24)

We listened to a presentation on The Locker by Karen Crosby, who is the executive director.

The Locker is a service organization developed and run by students who are supervised by adults. It provides assistance to "children in need" throughout Georgetown ISD, and now, in Jarrell ISD.

The assistance come in the ways of school and personal supplies, as well as dealing with the issue of homelessness.

The Locker is one of the organizations helping the youth in our area which is supported by our fundraising.

Rotarians in the News

Bill Harrah celebrated his 85th birthday.

Harold and Sandra Bergh returned from an extensive tour of South America.

We said goodbye to Mike McGaughan who is returning to Bloomington, Il.

Chuck McKay

It is with sadness that I speak of the passing of Chuck. His health forced him to leave the club several years ago.

He was one of the founding members. Chuck was a friend to many of us, an all-around good person and a Rotarian who helped make our meetings fun. Funeral services are pending.

Rotary Fest Dinner/Dance

Many members signed up last week, and it is the committee's goal to sell out all the tables.

Even if you aren't a dancer, come to enjoy the dinner, socialize, and listen to the music of the fabulous Austin Rock-A-Fellas band and singers.

Raffle Tickets

All members have been asked to volunteer selling tickets one Saturday morning in the coming weeks in front of the City Market. A sign-up sheet is available.
