Rich and Rita Petro celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary.

A Rotary Moment

Stephen Brown walked into the last meeting singing "When the Saints Go Marching In". He was accompanied by Harold Berg playing the song on his accordion. Many of the members joined the singing.

Roving Rotarian

Linda Roberts returned from a trip to south Florida in time to make the meeting.

Arts and Crafts Fair Recognition

President Lou and other members thanked Bill Miller for the fine job he did in organizing our club's participation in the Fair.

Bill thanked all the members who volunteered that weekend. He recognized Rene Mercier, Mel Owen, and Susie Ward. Rene and Mel spent much time before the Fair helping to select vendors. Susie walked around during the Fair asking for donations for Polio Plus and collected $173.

A New Rotarian

PDG Bill Bryce installed our newest member, Bill Grusy. Bill was sponsored by Bill Harrah. We welcome Bill into our club and look forward to learning more about him in the near future.

Breakfast/Santa Social

Our club thanks Ed and Jackie Deaton for providing their home for this event. There was a large turnout, and the food was plentiful

We learned from John Chenoweth, Barb Pekar, and

Adaire Wolf what is expected of our membership to make this event successful.

Breakfast/Santa Update

The tickets were distributed at the Nov. 3rd meeting by Ben Gaines. Linda Roberts announced that if you are paying for tickets and writing a check, make the check out to Rotary. If you are making a donation, make the check out to the Chisholm Trail Foundation.

Signup sheets with times and dates are now available at the meetings for volunteers in the following areas: shopping at Walmart, guarding the truck in the parking lot, and wrapping the gifts.

Message from RI President
