Veterans' Day (Nov. 11)

On this extra special day, our Rotary club honored all of our veterans and thanked them for their service to this nation.

Many spoke of family members and friends who had served in the military.

For the main program, we listened to the bios of Navy veterans, Rich Petro, and Hugh Young, and also Marine Corps veteran, Bill Harrah.

Happy Bucks ($165)

Rotarians in the News

Congratulations to Rich and Rita Petro on their 59th wedding anniversary.

Membership Matters

Harold Bergh spoke of Lou Gibson's service to our club. Lou has recruited so many new members over the years and has been involved in various projects and events.

We all look forward to Lou's recovery and his return to Rotary.

Important Notice

Now is the time for all members to come to the aid of this Rotary Club regarding Breakfast with Santa.

Whether it is seeking donations, shopping for gifts or bagging them at Walmart, moving them to storage, wrapping, or working at some job at the pancake breakfast, your assistance is needed. There is a job for everyone.

John Chenoweth reported that we are buying for 160 children so we need to raise $33,000. Our club is off to a good start in fund raising, but we still have a ways to go'

Wed and Thurs. Dec. 3rd and 4th will be the days for shopping, bagging, and loading of gifts on a rental truck from 8:00 to 3:00. at Walmart.

Mon. Dec. 8th we will be sorting extra toys at the fire station on DB Woods Road in the evening.

Today's Program

Our speaker will be Scott Collins, representing the Tevid Corp., which specializes in tissue reconstruction.

Welcome, Scott.

Ex-Presidents Nominating Committee

This committee has been working to find a member to become vice-president and eventually become president. They have also been seeking individuals to take Board positions.

Breakfast with Santa- Social Evening of Nov. 18th

This was a night of fellowship and business, held in the Atrium for the first time. Many members and their wives signed up for the various jobs relating to this annual event.

We were all glad to see Lou Gibson in attendance.

Food was brought in from HEB; the wine flowed freely.

Sam Smith entertained us with a history of Santa Claus.
