Treat all people alike.

Give them all an even chance to live and grow.

Chief Joseph-Nez Perce

November is Rotary Foundation Month

Meeting: Nov. 16, 2021

Our speaker was Kevin Denney, chief-of-police for Jarrell. The chief was hired after working in the Irving Police Department for 24 years.

At the rapid rate which Jarrell is growing, there will be a need to hire many new officers. Chief Denney spoke about making sure these new officers are the right fit for Jarrell.

Meeting: Nov. 23, 2021

Amanda Still, the Arts and Culture Coordinator for Georgetown, was our speaker.

Georgetown’s cultural district now overlaps the historic downtown. The city wants to celebrate local history through art.

A grant from the Texas Commission of Art made this possible. Artists created two large murals in the city.

People were invited to help with the paintings of the murals.

More sculptures are becoming part of the art scene in our city.

Michael Bell

Our club congratulates Michael and Kristin Bell on their recent wedding. We wish them all the happiness in the future.

Now is the time for all able-bodied members to come to the aid of your Rotary Club.

Please read all the announcements coming from John Chenoweth regarding our Breakfast with Santa event.
